Guidelines

The event organization welcomes vendors with historical military related merchandise (both Allied and Axis). However, not Neo-Nazi or extremist activity of any kind will be tolerated.

All vendors are required to sell items that are complimentary to the military event. CGTW reserves the right to require removal of any objectionable material from vendor booth. If in doubt, please contact us before registration.

Space reservations are on a first-come, first-serve basis. No electrical hook-ups will be available. Vendor space is limited and pre-registration is required.

This is an outdoor event in early November. We hope for great weather but there is no guarantee. Please come prepared to protect your merchandise. Canopies are allowed.

Vendor set up on Saturday and Sunday from 8 - 10 a.m. Vendor sales may take place only within the vendor area. Do not leave your merchandise unattended at night. Security is not guaranteed.

All trash must be collected for proper disposal. Vendors must leave their area clean and neat.

No SWAT team or ammo dealers.

Space will not be guaranteed until payment is received. A forfeit of payment will occur for no shows. Cancellations must be made by October 15, 2011 for a full refund.

The vendor agrees to abide by all sales tax laws of Maryland (6%). The vendor is solely responsible for the collection and payment of these taxes.

All vendors and their helper(s) are required to sign the liability waiver and return with their application. Please make a copy of this application for your records or for additional waivers.
